5. The subject stated to Mr. Hopman that he wished to expand the circulation of the paper to include the DP camps in Munich and Trieste areas, also to lower the price per copy to 10 groschen. To carry out his project, subject asked for financial support in the amount of 1000 schillings monthly.

6. Mr. Hopman declined to extend any support; he did, however, write a report on the matter to Mr. Eppy, Political Advisor, USCOA, to the Commanding General, USFA.

7. Mr. Eppy discussed the matter with Col. Mulhall and forwarded Mr. Hopman's report to USCOA, Public Affairs, in Vienna. In his cover letter, Mr. Eppy pointed out that it is not the U. S. policy to support any specific religious group.

8. In Mr. Hopman's report subject's residence and office addresses were listed as follows:

Residence: Baumergasse 33; telephone: 31874

Office: Baimergasse 25; telephone: 29816

9. The following action was taken in regards to the Subject.

a. [ ] on his recent visit to Salzburg station suggested that sum of 1000 schillings be transmitted to the subject to keep his publication going, while a study of subject's possible future use was being made.

b. Transmission of funds to be carried anonymously from an alleged "Anonymous Friend."

c. An appropriate note in French to accompany the funds was written by [ ] .

d. On 27-28 August, [ ] attempted to effect the transmittal of the funds to subject's residence, but was prevented from doing so by unfavorable circumstances. On 28 August, [ ] engaged a Diamstein (#12) to deliver the envelope containing the note and funds to the subject.

e. On 30 August [ ] checked with the Diamstein whether he succeeded to effect the delivery. The Diamstein answered [ ] that he did.

f. On 30 August, on the third attempt, [ ] contacted the subject by telephone and the subject verified the receipt of the note and funds on 28 August.

g. The conversation between the subject and [ ] was carried on in French. In his opening remark, [ ] identified himself as the sender of the note. The subject was immensely pleased by the receipt of the funds and stated, "My prayers have been answered. The good Lord always provides for good endeavors. May God bless you, whoever you may be." The subject also stated that the funds arrived in the nick of time. He also expressed hope that the "good Lord" will enable him to carry on his work with the assistance of the "understanding anonymous friend."
